Subject: COVID-19 (coronavirus)

As a follow up from our communication on Wednesday 11 March we would like to issue some further information regarding COVID-19 (otherwise known as "coronavirus").

Over the last 48 hours there has been several concerning developments in sports around the globe and the basketball governing bodies came together today to discuss the situation further.

As of Friday 13 March 2020, Basketball Australia, Basketball Tasmania and the other state bodies have made the decision to continue with competitions this weekend.

Basketball Tasmania will continue to monitor community needs and consult with government and other key stakeholders and make assessments as necessary.

Should further advice be required regarding COVID-19, people are encouraged to ring the Public Health Hotline on 1800 671 738 or refer to the website <http://www.health.tas.gov.au/>
